

PASTOR

Behind every great leader there is someone who is willing to sacrifice for him. This is true of the heroes of the Bible, and it is just as true for today's pastors. They need people who will intercede for them in powerful, consistent, specific prayer. Be an intercessor! Bear your pastor's burdens. Pray, knowing the greatest gift you can give your pastor is the gift of prayer.

PASTOR'S SPOUSE AND FAMILY

Joshua 24:15 says, "As for me and my house, we will serve the LORD."

A pastor's family is in a position to sustain concentrated attacks from the enemy. Often these attacks have more impact on the work of God than if the pastor himself were the target. Your pastor's family needs your prayers!

- Them to retain qualities of righteousness, strength, power, love, and meekness even in the face of opposition

LOCAL CHURCH

Being born again birthed us into a new family—the church family. The development of your local church depends on you. Your church needs your prayers!

Pray for . . .

- Your church to have a vision for the lost through a revival of prayer and fasting
- Your pastor and his family
  - To be godly leaders
  - Needs would be met
  - Divine wisdom in decision-making
- Each person to maintain an attitude of responsibility and thankfulness
- Each ministry to prosper and meet the needs of situations that arise
- An increase of souls
- The financial needs of each facet of the church to be met
- There to be unity in the congregation
- Daughter works to be established

MINISTRY

"And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers" (Ephesians 4:11).

The uplifting and refreshing presence of God is upon a church where God's people have humbled themselves to pray. Spiritual forces are at work. Without prayer preaching, teaching, lecturing, discipling—have little impact against the powers of evil. We must be united in unceasing, intercessory, concentrated, prevailing prayer!

Pray for . . .

- The pastor and his family to be anointed to provide godly leadership
- Sunday School teachers to be able to reach the hearts of children
  - That the children's hearts be tender toward God
- Home Bible study and outreach ministries to be sensitive to the needs of a hurting world
- Youth leaders to show Christ-like wisdom, love, and concern when dealing with teens
- Music and media ministries to have divine anointing and spiritual sensitivity to the move of God in each service
- Single and support ministries to find strong support within the church body
- The community to be receptive to God's Word
- Intercessors in the prayer ministry to have sensitivity and strength
- Missions and evangelism to be the heart of the church

LEADERSHIP

The most under-utilized source of spiritual power in our churches today is the intercession for Christian leaders. No question exists in the minds of those who have experienced it; committed, faithful intercession brings increased spiritual power to Christian ministries.

Our leaders need prayer!

Pray for . . .

- Leaders to be sensitive to God's voice and increase in their knowledge of Him
- Leaders to have wisdom, understanding, and boldness to act
- Leaders to find favor with God and man
- Leaders to have clarity of vision and pure motives
- Leaders to be submissive in spirit to God
- Leaders to pursue righteousness and abound in the fruit of the Spirit
- God to send warring angels to guard, guide, and protect leaders
- Leaders to establish godly priorities
- Leader's families to be protected and blessed

"God will do nothing on earth except in answer to believing prayer." John Wesley
